TO expatiate on the Usefulness of a Book of Coach-Rates, would be to offer an Affront to the Reader's Understanding; the Impositions of Hackney-Coachmen having long been universally complained of, and some Method of becoming acquainted with their legal Demands, as universally desired. It is confessed, that the Commissioners, appointed by Authority, may at any Time be appealed to in matters of Dispute; but it is certain, that the Inconvenience of giving the necessary Attendance, induces too many to overlook slight Offences, though by it, they become the Encouragers of those they wish to punish.

The following Attempt has met with the Approbation of the Public; it were to be wished such an Attempt could be made more worthy of it. The Correctness of the Press in a Publication of this Kind, is indeed a very material Circumstance. The first Edition occupied all the Care and Attention of the Editor; and this second has passed the revival of a Gentleman much skilled in the subject, to whom the most grateful Acknowledgments are due: If, notwithstanding, Errors should still be discovered, the Editor can only promise for his Diligence to correct them, as far as they shall come to his Knowledge, in the next Edition. In the Interim, he will thankfully receive any Intimations that may tend to render this Design more complete, and consequently more serviceable to the Public.

With regard to the Fares enumerated in these Pages, it is but right, for the Reader's Satisfaction, to assure him, that they have undergone an actual Mensuration, by which alone such an Assistant as the Present, can in any Degree, be depended on.

ABSTRACTS
COACHES and CHAIRS, &c.

I. THE Crown may nominate under the Great Seal, Commissioners for regulating and licensing Hackney-Coaches, not exceeding five, who shall regulate and licence all Hackney-Coaches within the Bills of Mortality, for thirty-two Years.

II. The Commissioners may, under their Hands and Seals, or of the major Part of them, license not exceeding eight hundred Hackney-Coaches, and upon every Licence there shall be reserved the weekly Sum of 5s. to be monthly paid.

III. The Commissioners for thirty-two Years may license two hundred Hackney-Chairs within the Bills of Mortality, reserving to the Crown the yearly Sum of 10s. to be paid quarterly.

IV. No Person shall drive or let to hire any Hackney-Coach or Coach-Horses within the weekly Bills, &c. without a Licence from the Commissioners, upon Forfeiture of 5l. nor carry any Hackney Chair for Hire without such Licence, upon Forfeiture of 40s. and no Horse shall be used in any Hackney Coach under the Size of fourteen Hands; and every licensed Coach and Chair shall have a Mark or Figure on each Side; and if one Person shall be licensed to keep several Hackney Coaches or Chairs, he shall have distinct Figures; and no Person shall put the same Figure on his Coach or Chair which is appointed for another, or shall deface the Figure, upon Forfeiture of 5l. one Moiety to the Informer, and the other to the Crown.

V. Commissioners licensing more than eight hundred Coaches, or two hundred Chairs, shall forfeit 100l. to be recovered in the Courts at Westminster, by any who will sue.

VI. No Hackney Coachman shall take for his Hire in and about London and Westminster, or within ten Miles thereof, above 10s. per Day, reckoning twelve Hours to the Day; and not above 1s. 6d. for the first Hour, and 1s. for every Hour after. And no Person shall pay from any of the Inns of Court, or thereabouts, to any Part of St. James's or Westminster (except beyond Tothil-street) above 1s. and from any of the Inns of Court, or thereabouts, to the Royal Exchange, 1s. and if to the Tower, Bishopsgate, or Aldgate, or thereabout 1s. 6d. and the like Rates to and from Places of the like Distance.

VII. No Person shall be obliged to pay for a Hackney Coach above 1s. for any Distance not exceeding one Mile and four Furlongs; and if above that Distance, and not exceeding two Miles, 1s. 6d. and the Commissioners shall cause

cause the Distances to be measured between the most noted Places within the weekly Bills.

VIII. Hackney Chairmen shall have no more than the Rate of a Hackney Coach driven two thirds Parts of the same Distance; and any Hackney Coachman or Chairman exacting more, or refusing to go at that Rate, forfeits 4os.

IX. The Commissioners shall appoint under Officers, and they are not to take for their Licences any Gratuity or any Fee, other than what is to be paid to the Crown, upon Pain to forfeit their Offices, and to be incapable of any Grant thereof, or of any other Office. Only the Clerks may take 2s. 6d. for ingrossing each Licence.

X. The Commissioners and other Officers shall take an Oath for the due Execution of their Offices.

XI. The Commissioners shall pay the Money into the Exchequer, and upon Oath deliver to the Treasury, Books of Accounts, containing all the Licences granted, and the Names and Surnames of the Persons to whom granted, &c. once in every Year.

XII. The weekly and other Rents and Sums of Money, and all Forfeitures and Penalties by this Act, or by any Bye-Laws made by the Commissioners (the Penalties to be incurred by the Commissioners, excepted) shall be levied by Warrant of three of the Commissioners, by Distress of the Goods of the Offender, which shall be sold within ten Days after the Distress, &c. and if no Distress can be had, the Offender shall be committed by like Warrant till the Penalty be paid; and if the Rent be behind fourteen Days, the Commissioners (without demanding the Arrear) may revoke the Licence.

XIII. Offences against the Act may be heard and determined by three Commissioners in a summary Way, upon the Oath of one Witness, or upon Confession (the Party being summoned) summoned) one Moiety to the Crown, the other to the Informer.

XIV. Persons sued for any thing done in pursuance of this Act, may plead the general Issue; and if Judgment be against the Plaintiff, the Defendant shall have double Costs.

XV. No Certiorari shall supersede Execution or other Proceeding upon any Order of the Commissioners.

XVI. The Commissioners may make Bye-Laws to bind the Persons who have Licences, and annex Penalties for the better putting in Execution this Act, and for the good Government of the Persons licensed.

XVII. The Bye-Laws shall be approved by the Lord Chancellor and the two Chief Justices and Chief Baron, or any three of them, and then printed; and the Breach of such Bye-Laws shall be punishable by any Justice of Peace, Mayor, or Head-Officer where the Offence shall be committed.

XVIII. That Part of the Penalties which belongs to the Queen, shall be transmitted to the Receiver-General of the Revenues of the Hackney-Coaches, and certified to the Commissioners within ten Days after levied, upon Forfeiture of double the Sum; two thirds to the Crown, the other third to the Informer.

XIX. Upon Complaint to the Commissioners, that a Coachman or Chairman hath offended, he shall be summoned: and if he refuses to appear, or is found guilty of a Misbehaviour, they may revoke his Licence, for giving abusive Language, or otherwise.

XX. Coachmen or Chairmen licensed may ply on the Lord's Day, notwithstanding the Act 29 Car. 2.

XXI. An Account of the Profits arising by licensing Coaches and Chairs shall be made annually before the Auditors of the Imprests.

XXII. If

XXII. If any refuse to pay a Coachman or Chairman his just Hire, or shall cut or break any Coach or Chair wilfully, any Justice of Peace may grant a Warrant against the Offender, and upon Proof on Oath, award Satisfaction; and upon Refusal to make Satisfaction, may bind him over to the next Sessions, which shall finally determine, and for Non-Payment levy by Distress.

XXIII. If any Person driving a Coach, or carrying a Chair for Hire, under the Licence of another Person as his Servant, shall be guilty of any Misbehaviour, by demanding more than his Fare, or giving abusive Language, or other rude Behaviour, and being convicted by Oath of one Witness before the Commissioners or one Justice for London, Westminster, Middlesex or Surry, he shall forfeit not exceeding 20s. to the Poor of the Parish; or if not able to pay, shall be sent to Bridewell, or some House of Correction, to be kept to hard labour for seven Days, and have the public Correction of the House.

XXIV. The Commissioners for Hackney-Coaches may license (over and above the Number of Chairs by the former Act) any additional Number not exceeding one hundred Hackney-Chairs, during thirty-one Years, so that the Number of all the Chairs shall not exceed three hundred at one Time.

XXV. Hackney-Chairs thus licensed, shall pay the yearly Rent of 10s. Quartly, and be subject to the same Rules as other Hackney-Chairs and Chairmen by the former Act.

XXVI. The Commissioners for licensing Coaches and Chairs, shall in the first Place, license the Widows of Hackney Chairmen who die possessed of any Licences, unless such Widows shall neglect to take Licences, &c. within a reasonable Time, to be limited by the Commissioners, but not less than twenty Days.

XXVII. If

XXVII. Such Widows, and their Chairs and Servants, shall be liable to such Rules, Penalties and Orders, as any other licensed Chairmen are by the Acts 9 and 10 Ann.

XXVIII. The Commissioners authorized to put the Act 9 Ann. in Execution, may make such Bye-Laws to bind Persons licensed to keep Hackney-Coaches, the Renters of such Licenses, and Drivers of such Coaches, and annex such Penalties as they shall think fit; so as such Bye-Laws be agreeable to the Intent of this and former Acts, and for the good Government of the Persons licensed, the Renters and Drivers. The said Bye-Laws to be approved and put in Execution, as by the Act 9 Ann. 1 Geo. 1.

XXIX. If any Hackney-Coachman or Driver shall refuse to go at, or exact more for his Hire than shall be appointed, he shall forfeit a Sum at the Discretion of the Commissioners, not exceeding 3*l.* nor under 10*s.* the said Offences to be determined, and the Penalties levied as by the said Act is directed concerning the 40*s.* Penalty.

XXX. No Person shall ply or drive for Hire with any Coach, Hearse, or Coach Horses, to attend on any Funeral in London, Westminster, or in the Bills of Mortality, except Persons licensed by the Commissioners, on Pain to forfeit 5*l.* as by the said Act of 9 Ann.

XXXI. If any Person shall drive a Mourning-Coach or Hearse to any Funeral, except the same have a Number fixed on the Fore-Standard, or in some other Place to be appointed by the Commissioners, or except the same be the Coach of some Gentleman attending the Master or any of the Family, the Commissioners upon Information may summon the Driven, against whom not appearing, they are empowered to proceed, and though no express hiring shall be proved, yet unless the Party appear and prove a previous Order from the Owner of such Coach, &c. to attend at such Funeral, it shall be adjudged a driving for Hire, and the Party shall forfeit 5*l.* to be recovered of the Driver or Undertaker of such Funeral, to be levied and applied as aforesaid.

XXXII. IF

XXXII. If any Person be sued for any Thing done in pursuance of this Act, he may plead the general Issue; and if the Plaintiff be non-suit, &c. the Defendant shall have double Costs.

XXXIII. No Certiorari shall supersede Execution or other proceeding upon any Order of the Commissioners, in pursuance of this Act.

XXXIV. The Alderman of every Ward of the City, and every Justice of Peace in the said Cities and Counties, may inflict and levy the like Penalties for any Offences contrary to this Act, as the Commissioners may. Provided that no Person be punished twice for the same Offence.

XXXV. If any Person driving any Cart, Dray or Waggon, in the Streets of London and Westminster, Southwark, and other Streets and Lanes within the Bills of Mortality, shall ride upon such Cart, &c. not having some other Person on Foot to guide the same, every such Offender being convicted before the Alderman of the Ward, or a Justice of Peace, by Oath of one credible Witness, shall forfeit 10s. to be levied by Distress and Sale by Warrant of such Alderman or Justice; one Moiety to the Informer, the other to the Poor of the Parish; and in Default of Payment, the Offender to be sent to the House of Correction, to be kept to hard Labour for three Days.

XXXVI. Nothing in this Act shall deprive the Mayor, &c. of London, and Governors of Christ's Hospital of the Power they have to punish the said Offences, such Offender not having been punished before for the Offence.

XXXVII. The Commissioners for Hackney-Coaches are (over and above the Number of Chairs authorized by the Acts 9 and 10 Ann.) to license an additional Number of Hackney-Chairs not exceeding one hundred, which, after the 24th of June 1726, during eighteen Years, shall be used for Hire within London and Westminster, and the Bills of Mortality; so that the Number of all the Chairs to be licensed shall not exceed four hundred.

XXXVIII. On

XXXVIII. On every of the Licences to be granted in pursuance of this Act for keeping any Hackney Chair, there shall be reserved to his Majesty the annual Sum of 10s. to be paid quarterly at the four usual Feasts; and the Chairs shall have the same Rates, and be subject to the same Rules, as are by the former Acts prescribed.

XXXIX. All Monies to arise by Rents of the additional Number of Chairs shall be added to the Funds settled by the Act of 9 Ann.
